NOTIFICATIONS

Simla-4, the 5th November, 1955

No. LR 1-89/54.—The Insurance (Amendment) Ordinance, 1955 (No. 6 of 1955) recently promulgated by the President of India, and already published in the Gazette of India Extraordinary Part II, Section 1, dated the 1st November, 1955, is hereby republished in the Himachal Pradesh Government Gazette for the information of the general public.

THE INSURANCE (AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE,

1955

(No. 6 of 1955)

Promulgated by the President in the Sixth Year of the Republic of India

An Ordinance further to amend the Insurance Act, 1938.

WHEREAS Parliament is not in session, and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action ;

Now, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance :—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Insurance (Amendment) Ordinance, 1955.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Insertion of new section 52BB.—In the Insurance Act, 1938 (IV of 1938) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), after section 52B, the following section shall be inserted, namely :—

“52BB. Powers of Administrator respecting property liable to attachment under section 106.—(1) If the Administrator is satisfied that any person has rendered himself liable to be proceeded against under section 106, he may, pending the institution of proceedings against such person under that section, by order in writing, prohibit him or any other person from transferring or otherwise disposing of any property which, in the opinion of the Administrator, would be liable to attachment in proceedings under that section.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order made by the Administrator under sub-section (1) may, within fourteen days from the date on which the order is served on him, appeal against such order to the Central Government, and the Central Government may pass such order thereon as it thinks fit.

(3) An order made by the Administrator under sub-section (1) shall, subject to any order made by the Central Government on appeal, be in force for a period of three months from the date of the order unless, before the expiry of the said period, an application is made under sub-section (1) of section 106 to the court competent to exercise jurisdiction under that sub-section, and when such an application is made, the order shall, subject to any order made by that court, continue in force as if it were an order of attachment made by that court in proceedings under that section.

(4) An order made by the Administrator under this section shall,—

(a) in the case of an order affecting a corporation or firm, be served in the manner provided for the service of summons in rule 2 of Order XXIX or rule 3 of Order XXX, as the case may be, in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, (VII of 1908) and

(b) in the case of an order affecting a person not being a corporation or firm, be served on such person—

(i) personally, by delivering or tendering to him the order, or

(ii) by post, or

(iii) where the person cannot be found, by leaving a copy of the order with some adult male member of his family or by affixing such copy to some conspicuous part of the premises in which he is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain, and every such order shall also be published in the Official Gazette.

(5) If any question arises whether a person was duly served with an order under sub-section (4), the publication of the order in the Official Gazette shall be conclusive proof that the order was so served, and a failure to comply with the provisions of clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (4) shall not affect the validity of the order.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, any property in respect of which an order has been made by the Administrator may, with the previous permission of the Administrator and subject to such terms and conditions as he may impose, be transferred or otherwise disposed of.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the transfer or other disposition of any property in contravention of any order made by the Administrator under this section or of any terms and conditions imposed by him shall be void.

(8) For the purpose of enabling him to form an opinion as to whether any property would be liable to attachment in proceedings under section 106 or for the purpose of enabling him to institute proceedings under that section the Administrator may require any person to furnish information on such points or matters as in the opinion of the Administrator may be relevant for the purpose, and any person so required shall be deemed to be legally bound to furnish such information within the meaning of section 176 of the Indian Penal Code (XLV of 1860.)

(9) The Administrator shall have all the powers of a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, (V of 1908) while trying a suit in respect of the following matters, namely :—

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of witnesses and examining them on oath ;

(b) requiring the production of documents ; and

(c) receiving evidence on affidavits ;

and any proceeding before the Administrator under this section shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code (XLV of 1860)

(10) Save as provided in this section or in section 106, and notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force :—

(a) no suit or other legal proceeding shall lie in any court to set aside or modify any order of the Administrator or the Central Government made under this section, and

(b) no court shall pass any decree, grant any injunction or make any other order which shall have the effect of nullifying or affecting in any way any such order."

3. Amendment of section 52G.—In section 52G of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), for the words and figures "sections 52A to 52C inclusive", the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"section 52A, section 52B, section 52BB or section 52C".

4. Substitution of new section for section 106.—For section 106 of the principal Act, the following section shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, substituted, namely:—

"106. Power of court to order restoration of property of insurer or compensation in certain cases.—

- (1) If, on the application of the Controller or an Administrator appointed under section 52A or an insurer or any policy-holder or any member of an insurance company or the liquidator of an insurance company (in the event of the insurance company being in liquidation), the court is satisfied—
  - (a) that any insurer (including in any case where the insurer is an insurance company any person who has taken part in the promotion or formation of the insurance company or any past or present director, managing agent, manager, secretary or liquidator) or any officer, employee or agent of the insurer,—
    - (i) has misapplied or retained or become liable or become accountable for any money or property of the insurer; or
    - (ii) has been guilty of any misfeasance or breach of trust in relation to the insurer; or
  - (b) that any person, whether he is or has been in any way connected with the affairs of the insurer or not, is in wrongful possession of any money or property of the insurer or having any such money or property in his possession wrongfully withholds it or has converted it to any use other than that of the insurer; or
  - (c) that, by reason of any contravention of the provisions of this Act, the amount of the controlled fund within the meaning of section 27A has been diminished;

the court may examine any such insurer, director, managing agent, manager or liquidator or any such officer, employee or agent of the insurer or such other person, as the case may be, and may compel him to contribute such sums to the assets of the insurer by way of compensation in respect of the misapplication, retention, misfeasance or breach of trust as the court thinks fit, or to pay such sum as may be found due from him in respect of any money or property of the insurer for which he is liable or accountable or to restore any money or property of the insurer or any part thereof, as the case may be; and where the amount of the controlled fund has been diminished by reason of any contravention of the provisions of this Act, the court shall have power to assess the sum by which the amount of the fund has been diminished and to order the person guilty of such contravention to contribute to the fund the whole or any part of that sum by way of compensation; and in any of the aforesaid cases in the court shall have power to order interest to be paid at such rate and from such time as the court may deem fit.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (3), where it is proved that any money or property of an insurer has disappeared or has been lost, the court shall presume that every person in charge of, or having a disposing power over, such money or property at the relevant time (whether a director, manager, principal officer or any other officer) has become accountable for such money or property within the meaning of sub-clause (i) of clause (a) of sub-section (1), and the provisions of that sub-section shall apply accordingly, unless such person proves that the money or property has been utilised or disposed of in the ordinary course of the business of the insurer and for the purpose of that business or that he took all reasonable steps to prevent the disappearance or loss of such money or property or otherwise satisfactorily accounts for such disappearance or loss.

(3) Where the insurer is an insurance company and any of the acts referred to in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) has been committed by any person, every person who was at the relevant time a director, managing agent, manager, liquidator, secretary or other officer of the insurance company shall, for the purposes of that sub-section, be deemed to be liable for that act in the same manner and to the same extent as the person who has committed the act, unless he proves that the act was committed without his consent or connivance and was not facilitated by any neglect or omission on his part.

(4) Where at any stage of the proceedings against any person under this section (hereinafter referred to as the delinquent), the court is satisfied by affidavit or otherwise—

- (a) that a prima facie case has been made out against the delinquent; and
- (b) that it is just and proper so to do in the interests of the policy-holders of an insurer or of the members of an insurance company, the court may direct the attachment of—
  - (i) any property of the insurer in the possession of the delinquent;
  - (ii) any property of the delinquent which belongs to him or is deemed to belong to him within the meaning of sub-section (5);
  - (iii) any property transferred by the delinquent within two years before the commencement of proceedings under sub-section (1) or during the pendency of such proceedings, if the court is satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that the transfer was otherwise than in good faith and for consideration.

(5) For the purposes of sub-section (4), the following classes of property shall be deemed to belong to a delinquent,—

- (a) any property standing in the name of any person which by reason of the person being connected with the delinquent, whether by way of relationship or otherwise, or on account of any other relevant circumstances appears to belong to the delinquent;

- (b) the property of a private company in respect of the affairs of which the delinquent, by himself or through his nominees, relatives, partners or persons interested in any shares of the company, is able to exercise or is entitled to acquire control, whether direct or indirect.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section a person shall be deemed to be a nominee of a delinquent, if, whether directly or indirectly, he possesses on behalf of the delinquent, or may be required to exercise on the direction or on behalf of the delinquent, any right or power which is of such a nature as to enable the delinquent to exercise or to entitle the delinquent to acquire control over the company's affairs.

(6) Any claim to any property attached under this section or any objection to such attachment shall be made by an application to the court, and it shall be for the claimant or objector to adduce evidence to show that the property is not liable to attachment under this section, and the court shall proceed to investigate the claim or objection in a summary manner.

(7) When disposing of an application under sub-section (1), the court shall, after giving all persons who appear to it to be interested in any property attached under this section an opportunity of being heard, make such order as it thinks fit respecting the disposal of any such property for the purpose of effectually enforcing any liability under this section, and all such persons shall be deemed to be parties to the proceedings under this section.

(8) In any proceedings under this section the court shall have full power and exclusive jurisdiction to decide all questions of any nature whatsoever arising thereunder and, in particular, with respect to any property attached under this section, and no other court shall have jurisdiction to decide any such question in any suit or other legal proceeding.

(9) In making any order with respect to the disposal of the property of any private company referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (5), the court shall have due regard to the interests of all persons interested in such property other than the delinquent and persons referred to in that clause.

(10) This section shall apply notwithstanding that the act is one for which the person concerned may be criminally liable.

(11) In proceedings under this section the court shall have all the powers which a court has under section 237 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (VII of 1913).

(12) This section shall apply in respect of a co-operative society as defined in Part III as it applies in respect of an insurer.

(13) On and from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Ordinance, 1955, the court entitled to exercise jurisdiction under this section shall be the High Court within whose jurisdiction the registered Office of the insurer is situate (hereinafter referred to as the High Court) and any proceeding under this section pending at such commencement in any court other than the High Court shall, on such commencement, stand transferred to the High Court.

(14) The High Court may make rules providing for—

- (a) the manner in which enquiries and proceedings may be held under this section;
- (b) any other matter for which provision has to be made for enabling the High Court to effectively exercise its jurisdiction under this section."

5. Amendment of section 107.—In section 107 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1),—

- (a) after the words "the Controller", the words and figures "or an Administrator appointed under section 52A" shall be inserted;
- (b) for the words, brackets and figures "any director, manager or other officer of any insurer or any person who is liable under sub-section (2) of section 41", the words, brackets and figures "any director, managing agent, manager, secretary or other officer of an insurer or any liquidator or any employee or agent of an insurer or any person who is liable under sub-section (2) of section 41 or any other person" shall be substituted.

THE INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES (BANKING COMPANIES) DECISION ACT, 1955

(41 OF 1955)

to provide for the modification of the decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, dated the 28th day of April, 1954, in accordance with the recommendations of the Bank Award Commission and for giving effect to the award accordingly.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Industrial Disputes (Banking Companies) Decision Act, 1955.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “appellate decision” means the decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, dated the 28th day of April, 1954, in the matter of the appeals filed before it against the award of the All-India Industrial Tribunal (Bank Disputes), Bombay;

(b) “award” means the award of the All-India Industrial Tribunal (Bank Disputes), Bombay, constituted by the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour No. S.R.O. 35, dated the 5th day of January, 1952;

(c) “Bank Award Commission” means the person appointed by the Resolution of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour No. L.R. 100(9)/55, dated the 25th day of February, 1955, to enquire into and report upon the terms of reference specified in the Resolution of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour No. L.R. 100(56)/54, dated the 17th day of September, 1954;

(d) “modification order” means the order of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour No. S.R.O. 2732, dated the 21st day of August, 1954, modifying the appellate decision under section 15 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950 (XLVIII of 1950).

3. Appellate decision to have effect subject to the modifications recommended by the Bank Award Commission.—The appellate decision shall have effect as if the modifications recommended in Chapter XI of the Report of the Bank Award Commission, dated the 25th day of July, 1955, had actually been made therein and the appellate decision as so modified shall be the decision of the Appellate Tribunal within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950 (XLVIII of 1950) and the award shall have effect accordingly.

4. Duration of the award.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947) or Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950, (XLVIII of 1950) the award as now modified by the decision of the Appellate Tribunal in the manner referred to in section 3 shall remain in force until the 31st day of March, 1959.

5. Modification order to have no effect except in certain cases.—The provisions of the modification order shall not have, and shall be deemed never to have had, any force or effect except in so far as any of such provisions has become incorporated in the award by reason of the provisions contained in section 3.

6. Power to remove difficulties.—(1) If in the opinion of the Central Government any difficulty or doubt has arisen as to the interpretation of any provision of the award as now modified by the decision of the Appellate Tribunal in the manner referred to in section 3, it shall refer for decision the matter in respect of which such difficulty or doubt has arisen to a single member of the Labour Appellate Tribunal constituted under the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950 (XLVIII of 1950) or to such Industrial Tribunal constituted under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947) as it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf.

(2) The tribunal to which such matter is referred shall, after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard, decide such matter and its decision shall be final and binding on all such parties.

Received Assent on 22-10-55

THE PRIZE COMPETITIONS ACT, 1955

(42 OF 1955)

AN

to provide for the control and regulation of prize competitions

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the control and regulation of prize competitions;

AND WHEREAS the Legislatures of the States of Andhra, Bombay, Madras, Orissa, Uttar Pradesh, Hyderabad, Madhya Bharat, Patiala and East Punjab States Union and Saurashtra have passed resolutions in terms of clause (1) of article 252 of the Constitution in relation to the above mentioned matter and matters ancillary thereto in so far as such matters are matters enumerated in List II in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution;

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—

(1) This Act may be called the Prize Competitions Act, 1955.

(2) It extends to the States of Andhra, Bombay, Madras, Orissa, Uttar Pradesh, Hyderabad, Madhya Bharat, Patiala and East Punjab States Union and Saurashtra and all Part C States.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) 'licensing authority' means any officer or authority appointed by the State Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, for the purpose of granting licences under this Act;

(b) 'money' includes a cheque, postal-order or money-order;

(c) 'prescribed' means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(d) 'prize competition' means any competition (whether called a cross-word prize competition, a missing-word prize competition, a picture prize competition or by any other name) in which prizes are offered for the solution of any puzzle based upon the building up, arrangement, combination or permutation, of letters, words or figures.

3. Interpretation.—For the purposes of this Act,—

(a) references to printing shall be construed as including references to writing and other modes of representing or reproducing letters, words or figures in a visible form; and

(b) documents or other matters shall be deemed to be distributed if they are distributed to persons or places within or outside the territories to which this Act extends and the word 'distribution' shall be construed accordingly.

4. Prohibition of prize competitions where the prize offered exceeds one thousand rupees a month.—No person shall promote or conduct any prize competition or competitions in which the total value of the prize or prizes (whether in cash or otherwise) to be offered in any month exceeds one thousand rupees; and in every prize competition, the number of entries shall not exceed two thousand.

5. Licensing of prize competitions where the prize offered does not exceed one thousand rupees a month.—Subject to the provisions of section 4, no person shall promote or conduct any prize competition or competitions in which the total value of the prize or prizes (whether in cash or otherwise) to be offered in any month does not exceed one thousand rupees unless he has obtained in this behalf a licence granted in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

6. Licences for prize competitions.—(1) Every person desiring to obtain a licence referred to in section 5 shall make an application in writing to the licensing authority in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(2) On the receipt of such application, the licensing authority, after making such inquiry as it considers necessary, shall, by order in writing, either grant the licence or refuse to grant the licence.

(3) Where the licensing authority refuses to grant a licence it shall record a brief statement of the reasons for such refusal and furnish a copy thereof to the applicant.

(4) The fees on payment of which, the period for which, the conditions subject to which, and the form in which, a licence may be granted shall be such as may be prescribed.

7. Promoters of prize competitions to keep accounts and submit the same to the licensing authority.—Every person who promotes or conducts a prize competition in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder shall keep accounts relating to such competition and submit to the licensing authority a statement of accounts in such form and at such intervals as may be prescribed.

8. Power to cancel or suspend licences.—(1) The licensing authority may, after giving the holder of any licence under this Act a reasonable opportunity of being heard, cancel or suspend the licence on any one or more of the following grounds, namely:—

(a) that there has been a breach of any of the conditions subject to which the licence was granted;

(b) that the holder of the licence has contravened any of the provisions of section 7.

(2) Whenever a licence is cancelled or suspended the licensing authority shall record a brief statement of the reasons for such cancellation or suspension and furnish a copy thereof to the person whose licence has been cancelled or suspended.

9. Penalty for promoting or conducting any prize competition in contravention of the provisions of section 4 and 5.—If any person promotes or conducts any prize competition in contravention of the provisions of section 4 or section 5, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

10. Penalty for failure to keep and submit accounts.—If any person liable under section 7 to keep accounts or to submit statements of accounts fails to keep accounts or to submit statements of accounts as required by that section or keeps accounts or submits statements of accounts which are false and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both, but nothing contained in this section shall affect the provisions contained in section 8.

11. Penalty for other offences in connection with prize competitions.—If any person with a view to the promotion or conduct of any prize competition except in accordance with the provisions of a licence under this Act or in contravention of the provisions of this Act or in connection with any prize competition promoted or conducted except in accordance with such provisions—

- (a) prints or publishes any ticket, coupon or other document for use in the prize competition ; or
- (b) sells or distributes or offers or advertises for sale or distribution, or has in his possession for the purpose of sale or distribution any ticket, coupon or other document for use in the prize competition ; or
- (c) prints, publishes or distributes, or has in his possession for the purpose of publication or distribution,—
  - (i) any advertisement of the prize competition, or
  - (ii) any list (whether complete or not) of prize winners in the prize competition, or
  - (iii) any such matter descriptive of, or otherwise relating to, the prize competition as is calculated to act as an inducement to persons to participate in that prize competition or any other prize competition ; or
- (d) brings, or invites any person to send, into the territories to which this Act extends, for the purpose of sale or distribution, any ticket, coupon or other document for use in, or any advertisement of, the prize competition ; or

- (e) sends, or attempts to send, out of the territories to which this Act extends any money or valuable thing received in respect of the sale or distribution of any ticket, coupon or other document for use in the prize competition ; or
- (f) uses any premises, or causes or knowingly permits any premises to be used for purposes connected with the promotion or conduct of the prize competition ; or
- (g) causes or procures or attempts to procure any person to do any of the above-mentioned acts, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

12. Offences by Corporations.—(1) If any person guilty of an offence under this Act is a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly :

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to gross neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

- (a) 'company' means a body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals ; and
- (b) 'director' in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm.

13. Power of licensing authority to call for and inspect accounts and documents.—The licensing authority may —

- (a) require any person promoting or conducting a prize competition to produce before it the accounts and other documents kept by such person or to furnish to it such other information relating to the prize competition as it may require;

- (b) inspect at all reasonable times the accounts and other documents kept by such person.

14. Power of entry and search.—(1) It shall be lawful for any police officer not below the rank of sub-inspector authorised by the State Government in this behalf by general or special order in writing,—

- (a) to enter, if necessary by force, whether by day or night, with such assistants as he considers necessary, any premises which he has reason to suspect are being used for purposes connected with the promotion or conduct of any prize competition in contravention of the provisions of this Act;
- (b) to search the premises and the persons whom he may find therein;
- (c) to take into custody and produce before a magistrate all such persons as are concerned or against whom a reasonable complaint has been made or credible information has been received or a reasonable suspicion exists of their having been concerned with the user of such premises for purposes connected with, or with the promotion or conduct of, any prize competition in contravention of the provisions of this Act;
- (d) to seize all things found therein which are intended to be used or reasonably suspected to have been used in connection with such prize competition.

(2) All searches under this section shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. (V of 1898).

15. Forfeiture of newspapers and publications containing prize competitions.—Where any news paper or other publication contains any prize competition promoted or conducted in contravention of the provisions of this Act or except in accordance with the provisions of a licence under this Act or any advertisement in relation thereto, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare every copy of the newspaper and every copy of the publication containing the prize competition or the advertisement, to be forfeited to Government.

16. Appeals.—Any person aggrieved by the decision of the licensing authority refusing to grant a licence or cancelling or suspending a licence may, within such time as may be prescribed, prefer an appeal to the State Government and the decision of the State Government on such appeal shall be final.

17. Licensing authority and other officers to be public servants.—The licensing authority and any other officer acting under this Act shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (XLV of 1860).

18. Jurisdiction to try offences.—No court inferior to that of a presidency magistrate or a magistrate of the first class shall try any offence under this Act.

19. Protection of action taken under this Act.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the licensing authority or any other officer of the Government for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or the rules made thereunder.

20. Power to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, and subject to the condition of previous publication, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the form and manner of application for a licence and the fees, if any, for such licence;
- (b) the period for which, the conditions subject to which and the form in which, a licence may be granted;
- (c) the form in which and the intervals at which statements of accounts shall be submitted to the licensing authority;
- (d) the time within which an appeal against a decision of the licensing authority may be preferred to the State Government;
- (e) any other matter which is to be or may be prescribed.

B. D. SHARMA,
Assistant Secretary (Judicial).
